Note from the Head...

Hooks galore! We have continued our Hooks this week, with Year 4 visiting Salisbury, Year 1 mapping Wincanton today and Year 5 have been visited by the Carnival society!

Next week we have sports day and our legendary Wincanton's Got Talent afternoon preceeding the Summer Fair from 3:15-5:15pm. There is so much going on! Congratulations to the acts who have been selected to perform – it looks to be a great show!

Congratulations to the Year 4's who have completed their Multiplication Timetable Check this week. It has been fabulous seeing how confident the children have been tackling this activitiy.

We have welcomed 12 fertilized eggs into Recetpion this week and look forward to seeing our new chicks hatch in 2 weeks time! Who knew school was SO eggciting!

Have a wonderful weekend and we look fowrad to seeing you at next weeks events. 😊

Best wishes
Graeme Wilson
Headteacher

Sports Day

Sports Day will take place Tuesday 17th June at King Arthur's for all children in Years 1-6.

A letter was sent this week with all the arrangements for parents. We would welcome as many people to help walk to and from KA with each age group.

For those who are driving – Please can parents park on WEST HILL and not in the sports centre car park or on Dancing Lane.

Access to the field is from the KA entrance and walking around the back of the sports hall.

Camps 25/26

A letter has been sent to Year 5 parents this week about their opportunity to sign up for next years Okehampton Camp with a meeting scheduled for Mon 30th June @ 3.15pm.

We also remind parents in Year 3 to sign up for the Year 4 Hooke Court trip as we are looking to confirm numbers next week and would your child to miss out on such a brilliant adventure. Both camps allow you to pay in instalments and we would recommend that families keep up with the installments so not to have a large bill at one time.

PE Kit

Polite reminder that PE kit shorts need to be mid thigh length or longer, the very short shorts which are very popular at present are not acceptable for school.
